Gujarat Government Carves Out New District

The Gujarat government has decided to split Banaskantha district into two parts, creating a new district named Vav-Tharad, with its headquarters at Tharad.

With the creation of Vav-Tharad, the total number of districts in Gujarat will increase to 34.

Banaskantha was the largest district in Gujarat in terms of talukas and the second-largest in terms of area.

Banaskantha had 14 talukas, and 8 talukas (Vav, Bhabhar, Tharad, Dhanera, Suigam, Lakhni, Diodar, and Kankrej) will now be part of the new Vav-Tharad district.

The formation of the new district is expected to lead to increased funds and government grants, resulting in better infrastructure and human development services for the region.

Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin Offers $1 Million Reward

MK Stalin, the Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu, announced a $1 million cash prize for individuals or organizations that successfully decipher the Indus Valley Civilization (IVC) script.

Despite over 100 years of efforts, the script of the IVC, discovered by Sir John Marshall in 1924, remains a mystery.

Stalin made this announcement during the Centenary Year celebrations of the IVC discovery in Chennai.

Tamil Nadu allocated ₹2 crore to establish a research chair in the name of Iravatham Mahadevan, a noted epigraphist, to promote archaeological research.

An annual award will be given to two scholars to encourage archaeological studies.

Tamil Nadu has been conducting archaeological excavations at significant sites such as Keeladi (dated to be 2,600 years old) and other sites, uncovering evidence of ancient settlements and water management systems.

The Sangam Era is now considered to have begun around 600 BCE (pushed back by 300 years), with evidence of rice husks in a burial urn from Sivakalai being dated to 3,200 years ago.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi Inaugurates Delhi-Meerut RRTS

Prime Minister Narendra Modi recently inaugurated the Regional Rapid Transit System (RRTS) connecting Delhi and Meerut, drastically reducing travel time to just 40 minutes.

The RRTS is seen as a game-changer for Delhi-Meerut connectivity, marking a significant leap in regional travel and infrastructure improvement.

The newly inaugurated Sahibabad to New Ashok Nagar section is 13 km long, including an underground stretch of 6 km.

Anand Vihar station in Delhi connects to the Delhi Metro's Blue and Pink Lines, integrating with existing railway and bus terminals.

The full RRTS corridor spans 55 km, from New Ashok Nagar to Meerut South, with 11 stations along the way.

The RRTS cuts the travel time between New Ashok Nagar and Meerut South to just 40 minutes, a major improvement from the previous journey time, which was nearly two-thirds longer.

Punjab and Sind Bank to Launch Instant MSME Loan Scheme

Punjab and Sind Bank plans to launch an instant loan scheme for Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), with loans up to ₹25 lakh.

The scheme will be rolled out this month as part of the bank's initiative to digitally push credit.

The bank has already introduced digital home loan and vehicle loan schemes, where in-principle approval is granted within 15 minutes.

These schemes operate on a Straight Through Process (STP), running on a pre-defined Business Rule Engine (BRE), which automates the loan processing and sanctioning stages.

The automated approach eliminates manual intervention, improving the speed, efficiency, and customer experience in processing loans.

The STP process will be extended to the MSME loan products, with a focus on cash flow assessment and tracking the digital footprint via account statements.

The digital loan products allow instant sanctioning, even during holidays, making the process more convenient and reducing default risks.

The bank plans to launch the digital renewal and sanctioning of Kisan Credit Cards (KCC) by next month.

Under KCC, farmers can receive up to ₹2 lakh without collateral.

The bank is also working to provide collateral-free loans under the Pradhan Mantri MUDRA Yojana (PMMY) of up to ₹50,000 through its digital platform.

RBI Approves HDFC Bank's acquisition of 9.5% Stake in Kotak Bank, AU, and Capital Small Finance Banks

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has approved HDFC Bank's plan to acquire an aggregate stake of up to 9.5% in Kotak Mahindra Bank, AU Small Finance Bank, and Capital Small Finance Bank.

The RBI's approval is valid until January 2, 2026.

HDFC Bank and its group entities (including HDFC Mutual Fund, HDFC Life Insurance, HDFC ERGO General Insurance, and HDFC Pension Fund) are restricted to an aggregate holding of 9.5% of the share capital or voting rights in the three banks.

HDFC Bank needs to ensure that its group entities' combined holding does not exceed the 9.5% cap.

While HDFC Bank does not plan to invest directly in these banks due to the 5% investment cap for group entities, it sought RBI approval to increase investment limits.

DPIIT Partners with Stride Ventures

The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT) has partnered with Stride Ventures, a leading venture debt firm, to catalyze the growth of Indian startups and expand their global reach.

This collaboration will provide financial support, strategic mentorship, and market access, driving the growth of startups and contributing to India's economic agenda of fostering innovation and entrepreneurship for overall growth.

The partnership supports the Make in India and Make for the World strategies, focusing on sectors like manufacturing, consumer goods, B2B, and cleantech to boost entrepreneurship, innovation, and investment.

Startups from tier-2 and tier-3 cities will receive specialized guidance, mentorship, and access to a global network of mentors, fostering innovation in regions beyond major metros.

The initiative will also raise awareness about various fundraising instruments, especially venture debt, enabling startups to pursue their growth aspirations.
