ISRO Chairman Inaugurates New IIT-Madras Research Centre

The Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) on March 17, 2025, inaugurated the Shri S Ramakrishnan Centre of Excellence in Fluid and Thermal Science Research at the Indian Institute of Technology Madras (IIT Madras).

The newly launched centre, based in the Department of Mechanical Engineering at IIT-M, aims to advance research in spacecraft and launch vehicle thermal management.

During the inauguration, ISRO chairman, Dr V Narayanan, highlighted India's progress in cryogenic engine technology, stating that despite initial technological denials, the country now possesses three cryogenic engines, including a human-rated version.

He noted that only 6 countries have developed this technology.

The centre is named after Shri S. Ramakrishnan, an IIT Madras alumnus and aerospace engineer known for his contributions to launch vehicle engineering.

He played key roles as Project Director for the PSLV and GSLV Mk-III and served as Director of the Liquid Propulsion Systems Centre (LPSC) and Vikram Sarabhai Space Centre (VSSC). He was awarded the Padma Shri in 2003.

IIT Madras Director Prof V Kamakoti emphasized the importance of thermal and cooling technologies in space exploration

Fitch Affirms Union Bank of India and Punjab National Bank (PNB) Ratings at BBB

Fitch Ratings affirmed Union Bank of India and Punjab National Bank (PNB) at 'BBB-' with a stable outlook, mirroring India's sovereign rating.

The ratings are driven by government support, with the Indian government holding 75% stake in Union Bank of India and 70% in PNB, ensuring a high probability of support.

Growth in the Indian economy is expected to help both banks sustain profitability.

Fitch upgraded the Viability Rating (VR) of both banks to 'bb-' from 'b+', supported by improvements in their risk profiles and financial performance.

The Government Support Rating (GSR) was affirmed at 'BBB-'.

For Union Bank of India, Fitch revised the asset-quality score to positive from stable, expecting a further decline in the impaired-loan ratio.

The risk profile score was upgraded to 'b+' from 'b', driven by greater loan diversification, reduced corporate loan risk, and limited exposure to unsecured retail loans.

However, risks remain due to the bank's history of cyclical growth and financial metric deterioration in economic downturns.

For Punjab National Bank (PNB), the bank's large nationwide presence supports profitable business generation.

The risk profile score was upgraded to 'b+' from 'b', reflecting improved loan mix diversification, clean-up of legacy bad loans, and limited unsecured retail loan exposure.

Fitch revised the asset-quality outlook to positive from stable, with the impaired-loan ratio declining to 4.1% (9MFY25) from 5.7% (FY24).

The earnings and profitability score was upgraded to 'bb-' from 'b+', as profitability exceeded expectations.

Both banks are expected to sustain profitability in the medium term, provided risks are effectively managed.
