Canara Bank Designates RCom and Its Subsidiary As 'Fraud' Accounts

Canara Bank has classified Reliance Communications (RCom) and its subsidiary, Reliance Telecom, as "fraud" accounts due to non-utilization of funds as per the sanctioned terms.

The bank alleges that the loan amount was routed through RCom to Reliance Telecom for settling liabilities to connected or related parties, violating the terms of the loan agreement.

The loans availed by RCom were invested in mutual funds and fixed assets, which were liquidated immediately to make payments to related and non-related parties.

Canara Bank had sanctioned a loan of Rs 1,050 crore to Reliance Communications.

Reliance Communications was classified as a non-performing asset (NPA) in March 2017.

Ericsson India initiated insolvency proceedings against Reliance Communications, leading to the company's admission into the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) in May 2018

Magnus Carlsen Clinches Tata Steel Chess India Blitz Title

Magnus Carlsen triumphed in the sixth edition of Tata Steel Chess India Blitz after a dramatic turn of events.

Arjun Erigaisi, who had been leading the tournament with three rounds left, faltered dramatically, ending off the podium.

Carlsen finished 1.5 points ahead of second-placed Wesley So, clinching his second title in five days and his 10th major title of the year.

Arjun Erigaisi's over-ambitious strategy led to losses in his final three games, including a critical defeat to Carlsen in the penultimate round.

Wesley So capitalized on Arjun's collapse, securing second place with an outstanding 8.0/9 score on the final day.

Jorge Martin Clinches First MotoGP World Championship

Jorge Martin of Prima Pramac Ducati has won his first MotoGP World Championship in the 2024 season.

Martin only needed a 9th place finish or higher in the Solidarity Grand Prix of Barcelona to secure the title, with a 19-point lead over Pecco Bagnaia.

Throughout the 24-lap race, Martin maintained a measured pace, while Pecco Bagnaia led the race, with Marc Marquez pursuing him on the Gresini Ducati.

Alex Espargaro, riding for Factory Aprilia, helped Martin by keeping pressure off him, staying ahead of Alex Marquez and acting as a defensive buffer.

Jorge Martin crossed the finish line, realizing his long-held dream and securing the championship, finishing with 10 points more than Pecco.

Marc Marquez completed the season in third place, a notable achievement riding a year-old Ducati for a satellite team.
