BANKING

India's First-Ever Surety Bond from Bajaj Allianz

- Union Minister for Road, Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari launched India's first ever surety bond insurance product from the Bajaj Allianz General Insurance.
- It is expected to reduce the need for bank guarantee for the infrastructure developers.
- The Surety Bond Insurance is a risk transfer tool for the principal (authority which has awarded the contract) and shields the principal from the losses that may arise in case the contractor fails to perform their contractual obligation.
- Unlike a bank guarantee, the Surety Bond Insurance does not require large collateral from the contractor thus freeing up significant funds for the contractor, which they can utilise for the growth of the business.
- The product will facilitate the growth of upcoming infrastructure projects in the country.
