UGC Releases Notification To Scrap MPhil

The University Grants Commission has issued a notice warning students not to pursue an MPhil degree since it is no longer recognised.

The University Grants Commission (UGC) announced that it has learned that not many universities are accepting new applications for the Master of Philosophy (MPhil) degree.

It went on to say that an MPhil degree is no longer a recognised degree.

The announcement stressed the UGC (Minimum Standards and Procedures for Award of PhD Degree) Regulations 2022, which expressly forbids higher educational institutions from conducting MPhil programmes.

The UGC had already ruled the MPhil degree to be invalid, advising higher education institutions not to offer MPhil programmes.

The notice also advises universities to take prompt action and cease accepting applications for the MPhil programme for the academic year 2023-24.

India has Paid UAE in Rupees to Buy Crude Oil

For the first time, India has paid UAE in rupees to buy crude oil.

India had signed an agreement with UAE in July 2023 for payment in rupees.

Indian Oil Corporation has paid to buy 10 lakh barrels of crude oil from Abu Dhabi National Oil Company in Indian Rupees.

This is a historic step taken by India to promote the local currency globally.

The move is part of India's broader efforts to diversify oil suppliers, cut transaction costs and establish the rupee as a viable trade settlement currency.

This initiative comes as part of the Reserve Bank of India's decision on July 2022, to allow importers to make payments in rupees and exporters to receive payments in local currency.
